RULES & REGULATIONS 参赛章程

The following is a list of the Rules and Regulations for all participants to abide. Participants found violating any of these Rules and Regulations will be disqualified:

1. Participants must submit full details of Ownership and Category Class for participating in the competition and shall not hold all event sponsors and venue sponsors responsible of any results correspondence;
2. Participants must register in their personal capacity and not represent any company or organization;
3. Due to the limited number of tanks and in the case of overwhelming entries, the event committee reserves the right to limit a participant to a maximum of 2 entry per category. This is to encourage maximum participation from all hobbyists and breeders. If the entries are still more than the number of tanks available, then entries shall be selected on a "First Come First Served" basis. And all successful and unsuccessful applicants will be informed within 1 week after the closing date. Unsuccessful applicants' fees will be refunded;
4. Each category should have at least 8 entries;
5. The event committee reserves the right to cancel or re-categorize any category in the event of insufficient entries or participants and would notify all participants accordingly;
6. The event committee reserves the right to re-classify entries in the event of wrong entry for any class/ category;
7. The event committee reserves the right to disqualify entries if any of the following is observed: deformed or unhealthy looking fish;
8. Each entry will be provided with an aquarium tank (2ft x 1ft x 1ft), aeration, filter, background, heater and lights. Participants are responsible for the temperature of heater adjustment and or preference to use heaters;
9. The event committee shall look after the welfare of exhibits throughout the duration of the competition. However, the committee and or relevant supporting parties shall not be held responsible for the loss, injury, mortality of fish due to natural causes or any unforeseen circumstances and or directly or indirectly, attributed to the elements of nature, force majeure or orders and directives imposed by any government authority;
10. Upon the benching in of entries being displayed at the competition hall, participants are to leave the hall and not allowed to remove any fish from the tanks unless prior approval has been obtained from the committee and the committee shall not be held responsible for whatsoever outcome;
11. Fishes shall not be fed during the competition. Colour medications are not allowed. Should medication or water conditioners are used; they must be colourless and verified by the committee for approval;
12. The closing date for all entries shall be 15 APRIL 2016 (12MN). All benching in/benching out, judging and presentation of prize schedules shall be in accordance as per front page details. No participants are allowed to loiter around and or in the competition hall during judging. Any prizes and fishes not collected after the specified date and time shall be deemed the property of the committee;
13. All entries for fish categories must be accompanied by full payment. Upon full payments made and any participant's withdrawal after the closing date, paid entries will be forfeited. Judges are not allowed to participate in the fish competition. No labelling of Name cards/Quotes and or Selling of Fishes during the entire duration of Competition;
14. A panel of reputable judges has been invited to judge the Fish Love Competitions and the decision of the judges shall be final and no further correspondence shall be entertained. Regardless of Classes, all champions are eligible to compete for the Grand Champion and the final decision shall be final and no disputes will be entertained.
